Expecting Amanda Martinez must cancel Quebec tour

A letter from performer Amanda Martinez who was scheduled to perform at Centennial Theatre this coming Friday.

Dear Presenters of Theatre Centennial and music lovers who have booked their seats to support live music and see us perform,

I am greatly disappointed to have to cancel my shows this weekend in Quebec which I have been so looking forward to. I do not take my commitments lightly and feel I owe you an explanation.

I am carrying twins and have just been told that I have a very high risk of early delivery which would put my babies in danger as I still have way to go before scheduled delivery.

I would not want to jeopardize two lives by traveling against my doctor's orders and advice and for this reason have had to cancel with my sincerest apologies.

I hope with your support I will have the opportunity to come back and thank you for your understanding. You were very generous to invite us to make our debut at your beautiful venue and I look forward to making this up to you.

With sincerest regrets,
Amanda
